

QUANDO is the second single taken from the forthcoming album GLOWING by L I M.

Following the first release BUBU, the artist takes yet another step into his path of discovery and transformation.

The track focuses on the feeling of loss, both internal and external.

Like when you lose someone in your life, your body deals with this sensation, tending to survival, adapting to change, opening up to the possibility of moving from one point to another.

Transition and feelings of losing parts of yourself and of people that you love determine a change in the perception of reality: reaching new highs and new depths, finding yourself sometimes in pain, sometimes soft and light, going through the sensation of being and not being present to yourself.

When you start feeling that you NEED yourself, in order to survive, that's when the change is already happening.

This is "QUANDO", the moment has arrived, you can't avoid it anymore, it's a process, it's moving from one point to another.

Out for Tempesta International, the song is accompanied by an illustration by Korean artist JUN (IG: @poff_hoi).
