

Blueness

Lyricist and composer: Kristina Hanses

Blueness is produced by Ludvig Larsson (Femme Equation, formerly Sa'ra Charismata, Naiivi, Era Isabel), who together with Mats Björke (former Mando Diao) runs the studio and music company Lab259.

and,

Andreas Ekelöv, a Swedish composer active in contemporary music, electronic music, pop music and also active in the electronic duo 1921.

KEJH (Kristina Hanses) is a singer, songwriter and dancer. She was the lead in the performance duo Kristal and Jonny Boy. La Tempesta discovered Kristal and Jonny Boy in Amsterdam in 2013. The same year, La Tempesta released their first EP followed by the album "It's my heart" the duo performed on several tours in Italy.

When the album "It's my Heart" was released by La Tempesta Dischi in the spring of 2018, the duo had toured Europe extensively since 2013. They performed at the world biggest music festival SXSW and as support act for Mando Diao's tour 2014 and also for one of Tove Lo's shows.

The album was well received and the singles "In the Morning" and "It's my Heart" rotated on radio stations in Italy and Germany. In Sweden, In the Morning was hailed by Dagens Nyheter's music editors.

As KEJH, Kristina released the EP NEW SELF (2022). The EP also became a dance performance; "NEW SELF - a dancing music album" and had Premiere in Nov 2022.

Now she is back with a new EP, first out is the single Blueness.

The song Blueness is written out of my interest in exploring and uncover those parts in us we repressed over time. Like in Carl Ljung's shadow work.

The song is about a woman who is exploring a part in herself that she doesn't want to see or she doesn't even know about yet.

She is finding out that she is carrying this sense of darkness inside her and she came to call it her bluest darkness, her saddest inside.

She is singing about taking her heart to a new place where she might have to face her deepest fears and she realises she needs to dig deeper into what is hurting.

That was the idea when I was writing the song. I came to call it Blueness even though I don't use the word in the song. I was thinking about different shades of blue and I started calling it blueness.

Lyrics:

Blueness

I take my heart to something new.
I find no cure to get out of the blue.
It's freezing cold, my tears turns into snow.
I´m freezing cold, my eyes are filled with snow.

I´m stuck in a silence, now it gets dark in my bluest darkness.
I´m stuck in my violence, now it gets dark in my bluest darkness, in my bluest darkness, I´m in my bluest darkness.

I´ve been afraid all of my life.
Though it took some time to get out of my mind.
Its freezing cold, my tears turns into snow.
I´m freezing cold, my eyes are filled with snow.

I´m stuck in a silence, now it gets dark in my bluest darkness.
I´m stuck in my violence, now it gets dark in my bluest darkness, in my bluest
darkness, I´m in my bluest darkness.
Bluest darkness.

I´m stuck in a silence, now it gets dark.
I´m stuck in a silence, now it gets dark.
I´m stuck in a silence, now it gets dark
